

LOVING VENETO

C O S T A D ' O R O W A L K

A patchwork of vineyards set among small architectural gems

An excursion along the crest of the Costa d'Oro hills, dotted with vineyards and adorned with small precious gems such as the panoramic views from the Oratory of San Gallo, the picturesque village of Collagù, and the ancient church of San Vigilio.

WHERE traversing the “Rive” (small hills) of Soligo (TV), finishing in Col San Martino. Start point to be arranged

WHEN all year round

AVAILABILITY minimum 4 participants, maximum 10 participants

DURATION full day. Packed lunch at participants' expense. Lunch in a casera (rustic farm building) during the walk.

DIFFICULTY medium

For info and prices: info@lovingveneto.it

